Laboratory Procedures

Triacontanoic acid is supplied as a solid. A stock solution may be made by dissolving the triacontanoic acid in the solvent of choice, which should be purged with an inert gas. Triacontanoic acid is soluble in the organic solvent DMSO at a concentration of approximately 1 mg/ml.

Triacontanoic acid is sparingly soluble in aqueous buffers. For maximum solubility in aqueous buffers, triacontanoic acid should first be dissolved in DMSO and then diluted with the aqueous buffer of choice. Triacontanoic acid has a solubility of approximately 0.25 mg/ml in a 1:3 solution of DMSO:PBS (pH 7.2) using this method. We do not recommend storing the aqueous solution for more than one day.

Description

Triacontanoic acid is a very long-chain saturated fatty acid. It is a component of D-003, a mixture of very-long chain aliphatic acids purified from sugar cane wax that has antiplatelet and cholesterol-lowering activities in animal models.<sup>1</sup>
