Laboratory Procedures

3-(3-Hydroxyphenyl)-3-hydroxypropanoic acid (HPHPA) is supplied as a solid. A stock solution may be made by dissolving the HPHPA in the solvent of choice, which should be purged with an inert gas. HPHPA is soluble in organic solvents such as ethanol and DMSO. The solubility of HPHPA in these solvents is approximately 2 and 1 mg/ml, respectively. HPHPA is also slightly soluble in dimethyl formamide.

Further dilutions of the stock solution into aqueous buffers or isotonic saline should be made prior to performing biological experiments. Ensure that the residual amount of organic solvent is insignificant, since organic solvents may have physiological effects at low concentrations. Organic solvent-free aqueous solutions of HPHPA can be prepared by directly dissolving the solid in aqueous buffers. The solubility of HPHPA in PBS (pH 7.2) is approximately 1 mg/ml. We do not recommend storing the aqueous solution for more than one day.

Description

HPHPA acid is a urinary metabolite.¹
